
We are looking for an experienced X-ray FSE to join our New England team. Ideal home location is Massachusetts north of Boston.

Pay range is $38 - $52 / hour with car, phone, great benefits and a great team!

Scope:

Reports to a Region Service Manager. Provides corrective and preventative maintenance, system installation and other tasks as assigned.

Experience and Qualifications:

- Proficiency (trained & experienced) for at least 3 models / manufacturers of X-ray equipment to provide timely repair, effective preventive maintenance and lead an installation
- Capable of operating required test equipment (oscilloscope, multimeter, dosimeter, etc.).
- Associate degree in electronics or equivalent experience, BS desirable
- Must have valid driver's license
- Must demonstrate very good communication and interpersonal skills
- Must demonstrate excellent customer management skills
- Must be reliable and able to work independently
- At least 5 years of technical service experience
- Must project a professional image

Responsibilities:

- Performs preventive and corrective maintenance as required
- Responsible for installation of upgrades and product changes as required
- Performs all aspects of equipment installation and de-installation
- Completes the administrative duties associated with the job including Expense Reports, Mileage reports, Time Cards, Parts Requisitions>Returns, Installation Reports, Service Reports, and other reporting duties as assigned in a timely manner
- Must be prepared to work overtime and unscheduled hours on occasion and travel as required
- Responsible for maintaining good customer relations
- Responsible for maintenance of assigned tools/test equipment
- Responsible for returning parts in the required time frame
- Responsible for promoting the image and reputation of Alpha Imaging
- Assist sales to ensure overall success of the company's goals
- Performs on-the-job-training for less experienced FSE
- Mentors one or more FSE1
- Serves as region or company technical support resource for one or more systems

To apply, send a resume and optional cover letter to HR@alpha-imaging.com

Alpha-imaging.com